Boulder City Police responds to a vehicle versus bicycle accident

At 7:28 p.m. on May 24, 2010, the Boulder City Police Department responded to an injury accident involving a vehicle and a child riding a bicycle. The accident occurred at the intersection of Avenue K and 7th Street.

The child, later determined to be eight years of age, ran the stop sign on 7th Street at Ave. K and was struck by a car traveling southbound on Ave. K.

The child was transported via Mercy Air to UMC Trauma Center where he was treated for his injuries.

The accident is still under investigation by the Boulder City Police Department Traffic Bureau.
